

Pretty Please

BRIDAL • HAIR • MAKEUP

Your preview session, often referred to as a 'trial', is an important part of the build up to your wedding day. Many brides say it's the moment at which everything becomes a little more 'real' for them. You are able to rest assured knowing that you will look exactly the way you had imagined and hoped for .

How do I book?

Once your wedding date and booking is confirmed you will be offered the chance to book in for a preview session. I suggest this session is ideally held around 4-12 weeks before the day itself but there are no restrictions. Some people like to try to book this in alongside a dress fitting so they can see their whole bridal look come together. I offer weekday appointments Mon- Friday , evening and weekend appointments are not guaranteed. These are extremely limited and offered on a first come, first served basis.

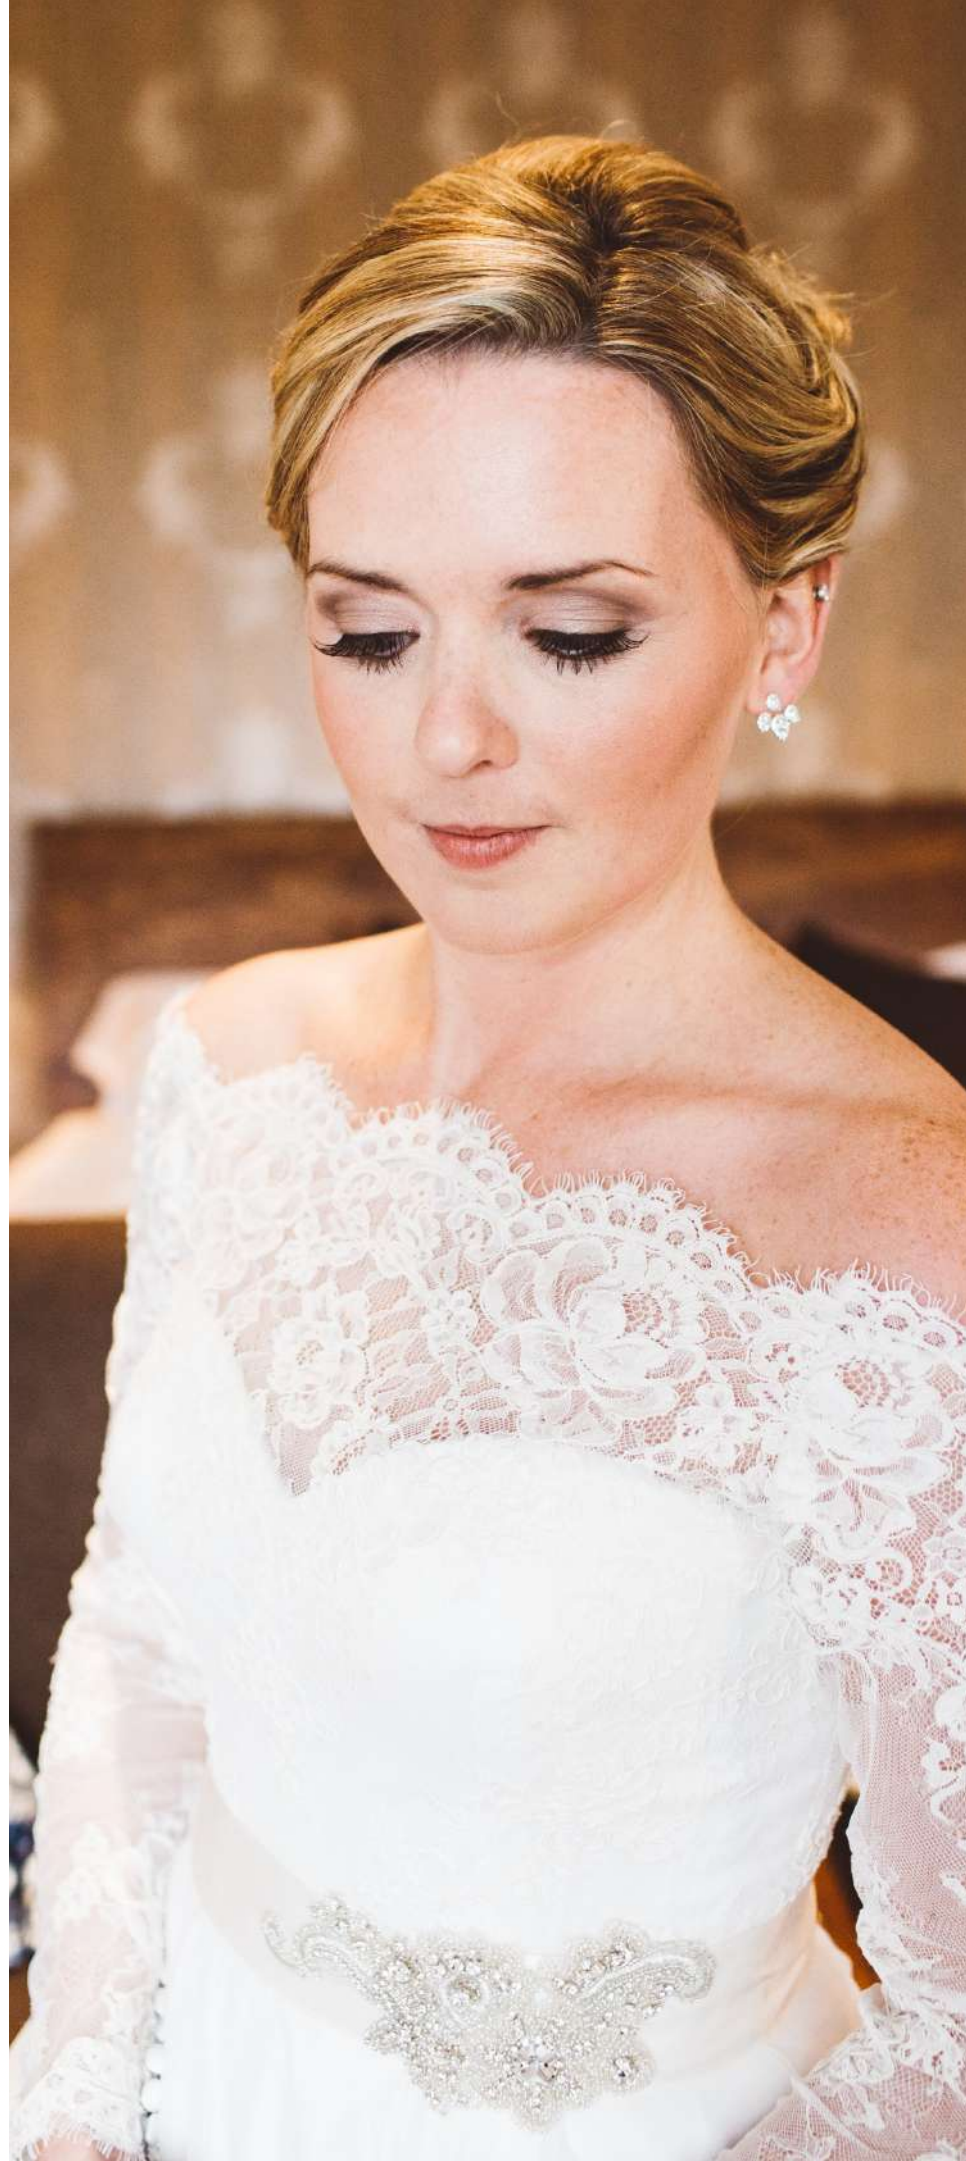

How long will it take?

I ask that you allow up to two and a half hours for a full bridal hair and make up session. This gives us time for a full consultation, and the opportunity to achieve your complete bridal hair and make up look. We are then able to make any changes and adaptations that you wish.

If you are coming for a bridal Hair OR bridal Make Up session then I ask that you allow 90 minutes.

Additional time can be purchased upon request should you wish to try various looks and styles that exceed this time frame.

Where is it held?

A preview session is held at my home address which will be provided upon payment confirmation.

This location ensures that I have all the equipment, tools and kit available to me that may be required to achieve your requested style, whatever that may be.

If you have difficulty reaching me for this session then please make me aware of this before booking. I will attempt to accommodate your request and may be able to travel where possible, although this is not guaranteed.

How much does it cost?

A full hair and make up preview session is charged at £125pp. This includes Airbrush Make up, lashes and a full consultation. This cost is per person and sessions can be booked for any member of the bridal party although it is not required that every person has a preview session.

Hair OR Make Up is charged at £75pp

Why have a preview session

This session allows us to work together, prior to your wedding morning, to create your perfect bridal vision. It ensures that I am able to fully understand exactly how you want to look and enables me to find the best way of achieving that. I'll ask you to bring photos of what you like (and even what you don't!) so we have a good starting point, before we consider how to adapt the look to personally suit you.

How do I pay?

Payment for your preview session is due 7 days before the appointment time, in the same way you made your deposit payment. This enables me to confirm your appointment and reserve your time slot. Please do let me know as soon as possible if you are unable to make your appointment so we can attempt to reschedule where possible, and so that your appointment time can be offered to another bride.

What if I change my mind?

Don't worry, small changes such as lipstick colours or lash choices can be altered on the morning of the wedding. Please make me aware of any intended changes in advance and if I think that we would benefit from a repeat preview session then you will be offered the chance to book in for another one.

What if I just don't know what I want?

You don't have to and not every bride does! The point of this session is to figure out just that and I'll be on hand to offer any suggestions and advice.

I might offer you ways in which to adapt certain looks and change them slightly to ensure that they are showing off your own best features based upon factors such as your face shape, hair line or skin tone.

Please note

If you have any allergies please be sure I am made aware before the start of your appointment. Whilst you are more than welcome to attend this appointment alone please feel free to bring along a friend or family member to give advice and opinions too. Having your hair and make up done by someone can sometimes be a nerve wracking prospect so knowing there is somebody on hand who knows you well enough to discuss your likes and dislikes (and give an honest opinion!) might be a good thing!

Any questions, please do just ask, I look forward to seeing you at your session!
